New postal rates are announced

Canadians mailing unsealed Christmas cards this year will have one rate for destinations in Canada and the United States, and a choice of two rates for overseas points, the Post Office Department announced today.

The rate for destinations in Canada and the United States is 6 cents. The cards must be unsealed, and they travel by surface mail.

For overseas destinations, the choice is between the Non-Priority (Surface/Air Mail) rate of 8 cents, and the Priority (Air Mail) rate of 12 cents.

Non-Priority (Surface/Air Mail) means that the mail may travel by surface, but will be airfreighted part way or all the way through to destination wherever possible (on a space available basis).

Priority (Air Mail) means that the mail travels by air right through to destination.

In both cases, the cards must be unsealed.

For persons wishing to seal their cards, the rates are as follows: To destinations in Canada, 7 cents (First Class rate; automatically travels by air); to the United States, either 7 cents (surface) or 10 cents (air mail); to overseas points, 15 cents (automatically travels by air under the new International All-Up Service).

All rates quoted above are for cards weighing up to one or two ounces, depending on the category. (Check with your local Postmaster).

In 1970, Canadians mailed approximately 155,000,000 Christmas cards. The Post Office staff of 48,000 more than doubles in December to handle the extra load.

In 1971, the deadline dates for cards sent by surface are as follows:
- Distant points in Canada and the United States - December 8th
- Other out-of-town points in Canada - December 13th
- Delivery within your own town - December 17th.

News-Argus Notebook

SANTA'S VISIT - Jolly Old St. Nicholas will make his annual pre-Christmas visit to Stirling on Saturday afternoon, Dec. 4. He will be arriving in downtown Stirling, in the area of the footbridge across Rawdon Creek, at about 2:30 p.m. Children from throughout the village and surrounding district are invited to meet Santa and make a Christmas wish. In conjunction with the occasion, Santa's sponsor, the Stirling Chamber of Commerce, has made arrangements for free skating at the local arena between 3 and 4 p.m. on Saturday.

TWO KILLED - Charges have been laid against Marvin C. Reid, 35, of Foxboro, the driver of one car involved in a two-vehicle collision which took the lives of two Madoc area residents Saturday afternoon at the Foxboro bypass on Highway 14. Dead are James Edward Henry, 57, and Sheila Henry, 20, R.R. 2, Madoc. There were seven passengers in the Henry vehicle.

WINTER ARRIVES - The first major snowfall of the season occurred here Monday night. Several inches of snow brought snowplows out and prompted that well-known Canadian exercise of snow shovelling into action again.

Senior Citizens vs. Air Pollution

Arriving a little late at Senior Citizens last Thursday, I was greeted by the strong odor of a skunk. I traced this to a table where Fred Heasman and Mary Cooke had just flogged Edna Sharp and Ada Bush in one sided game of euchre. There's so much of this stuff in our club that if it leaks out, I fear that we will be visited by the air pollution inspector.

Pearl McGee was introduced as a new member last week and Boy, will she ever make a good member. We also welcomed as visitors, Art and Lena Oosterhout and Doug and Norma Brown of the Frankford Club.

The president called for the singing of the anniversary song in honor of Ritchie and Flossie Geen who are celebrating their 50th. Gosh, they must have been married when they were kids, they look so young. They say it isn't possible for a woman to live with the same man over 50 years, for after 50 years he's not the same man.

Our very popular Tilley Senior was celebrating a birthday and her husband Jack, who is always Johnny on the spot, presented a great big beautiful cake. Under

Attends recital

Belleville Branch of the Ontario Registered Music Teacher's Association held its first annual recital on Saturday evening, Nov. 27 at Sir John A. Macdonald School, Belleville.

Miss Debra Sine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Sine, R.R. 1, Stirling, participated at the recital and played Rondo of 36 No. 5, by Clementi. Debra is a student of Mrs. Harold Elliott, R.M.T.

Vandalism at Peace Park

Vandals desecrated the Peace Pagoda Shrine at the Lester B. Pearson Peace Park sometime between October 1 and last week, according to information received by Roy Caldwell, chairman.

Inverted three-foot crosses were smeared on the shrine below the inscription from Isaiah 24, "and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more."

"This is the type of thing that makes one wonder if there will ever be peace in the world," commented Mr. Caldwell. "Occurring at a time when we are approaching the Christmas season it is even more deplorable. All thinking persons must condemn this type of action," he said.

PERSONALS

Fred Macdonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Macdonald, R.R. 3, Stirling has been transferred from Picton's branch of the Bank of Montreal to Exeter, where he will be officer in charge of the sub branch at Centerville. He was assistant accountant at Picton.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil St. Pierre and Laurie spent the weekend with Rev. and Mrs. J.B. Small and family, Chatham. On their return to Stirling they called on their brother-in-law, Mr. Cecil Gueph.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Steacy, Brampton, spent the weekend with their brother-in-law, Mr. Cecil Macklin.

Mrs. Frank Linn of Montreal is a guest of Mrs. J.B. Hough, Stirling, this week.

Weekend visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray, Spring Brook, were Mr. and Mrs. James Tanner, Angle and Robie of Coburn, and Mrs. Doug Fox and Diane of Stirling; Mrs. Myrtle Cassidy, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ray, Brenda and Bob of Coburn; Larry Van Horne and Grant Ray, Belleville; and Miss Sherill Bertram of Belleville.

Education was never like this

On Thursday, two local groups of kindergarten and Grade 1 children went on a bus and train excursion. They left Stirling Junior School in the morning on a bus which took them to the Belleville CN train station. Jim Ingram met the children and conducted an interesting tour of the station, ticket office and baggage room.

Then some children purchased a ticket which entitled all the children and their teachers and parent helpers to go by train to Napanee. A bus met them at Napanee and took a very enthusiastic (and tired) group back to Stirling.

The trip evolved from a transportation theme which had been carried on in the classroom during November. The aim of this trip was to give the children a new experience which could be developed in many subject areas when the children returned to the classroom.

Community school association meets

BY THOM REYNOLDS
The Stirling Community School Association was offered the assistance of Loyall College at a meeting held here last week. L. H. Cameron, field representative, Extension Division, of the college was present at the regular monthly meeting of the association and instructed by the college which could be offered to the village by the college.

He said that the college was placing night school programs and community school programs designed and instructed by the college in outlying villages. There would be a cost for the program and instructor as there is for programs offered at the college in Belleville.

Four programs were of immediate interest to the school association consisting of Mrs. W. Benson, chairman; George Patton, principal of the school; and leaders of the already existing programs. Snowmobiling, photography, floral arrangements, and a program in human relations and leadership development were discussed by the group.

The four programs would be taught by an instructor from the college with one lesson a week. The lessons would last through a 30 hour program. The fee would be approximately 50 cents an hour.

The association decided to wait for material to come from the college before going ahead with the programs.

Reports were heard from the 11 community school programs which have been operating since September and the others from the first of October. All programs seemed to be going very well was the report that was given by each of the leaders. The only problem came with the Adult Sports night which is held Wednesday evening in the Senior Public School. Because the attendance has been so low, Steven Patton, group leader, cancelled the program until more interest is shown.

One new club will be starting tonight in the Senior School's woodworking shop. The Stirling Snowdrifters, a snowmobile group, will be meeting every month in the school.

The organization of a photography club was discussed at the meeting. The group, which is hoping to form by the end of December, has to make a decision as to whether they want help from the Loyall College program or if they want to work on their own.

Also brought up for discussion was the installation of an ice surface and lights at the Senior Public School. It was decided that Mr. Patton, principal of the school, would arrange to have an area of the school grounds flooded and lights installed.

The next meeting of the association will be held on Thursday, January 6.

Hastings holds warden's banquet

Fewer speeches and more entertainment is the new trend for the annual Hastings county warden's banquet.

Such was the order of procedure at the Royal Canadian Legion Hall on Pinnacle Street Friday night when Warden Kenneth G. Smith of Elizaville town, who was host to more than 300 county councillors and their wives, along with other invited guests.

Formal proceedings were kept to a minimum consisting of the warden's address of welcome, recognition of past wardens and a toast to the guests. County Clerk - Administrator Carl Batesman was chairman for the evening's program.

William C. West of Stirling who headed county council back in 1936, was the oldest warden attending the banquet.

Warden Smith and Mrs. Smith received a set of matched luggage from members of county council as well as other gifts from family members and friends.

An hour of professional entertainment from Toronto rounded out the evening's program.

Ontario a winter wonderland

With an array of 115 ski resorts, several new and practically all with major improvements, Ontario opens its 1971-72 winter season with a substantial increase in inviting and exciting recreation facilities. Over $3.5 million worth.

Long renowned as a summer leader as a winter wonderland, and far from being an interlude to be grimly endured, winter in Ontario is a lively time of year, filled with a variety of activities ranging from fishing and snowmobiling to ice skating and carnival capers.

The expanding scope of snow time fun in this Canadian province indicates its growth as a year-round, all-season vacation region. Here are some of the steps taken to enhance Ontario's appeal as the winter enthusiasts' paradise.

Not content to rest on their laurels, resort operators have a record $3,600,000 this year - virtually double the amount of most previous years - on new ski areas, additional ski lifts, snowmaking equipment, chalet facilities and hill grooming.

The annual survey of ski facilities in the province shows that skiers will have a choice of 35 chairlifts, six more than last year, as well as 104 T-bars, 26 Pomallifts, three J-bars, 162 rope tows and 44 areas with snowmaking equipment.

There are 459 open slopes, 314 downhill runs and 66 areas with cross-country trails. Vertical drops vary from 100 to 800 feet, with maximum runs up to 8,000 feet.

At 110 snowmobile parks, over a thousand trails beckon the snowmobiler, whether you bring your own machine or rent one here.

For the fourth consecutive year, the Ontario winter reporting services will be operated on a direct-dialing basis to provide up-to-date snow conditions and related data for all news media and the public.

Conducted by the Department of Tourism and Information from its Barrie travel centre, in co-operation with the Ontario Ski Resorts Association, the service not only covers skiing, but also includes reports on highway conditions, ice fishing, snowmobiling, carnivals and other coming events, and general winter vacation information for all areas.

All Ontario ski developments have lifts and tows, plus club chalets with eating facilities, while many provide such conveniences as ski rentals, professional instruction and a variety of diversions including night skiing, tobogganing, snowmobiling, sleigh rides, skating and dancing. Some have hillside accommodation with a full range of apres-ski entertainment and others have accommodation nearby.

Daily lift and tow fees remain the same at most areas, ranging from $1 to $5 through the week and from $3 to $7 weekends. There is virtually no waiting for lifts on weekdays, with possibly a moderate wait - about 15 minutes maximum - usually much less - at the more popular resorts on weekends.

Numerous ski locations in Ontario are readily accessible by a pleasant, one-day drive over excellent highways from many U.S. points, including parts of New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Michigan. Too, for a combination skiing and big-city holiday, it's easy for ski buffs in New England and Illinois to enjoy the snowy slopes near bustling Toronto, the Ontario capital.

Between 50 and 100 miles north and west of Toronto, which takes in the Barrie-Collingwood-Cowansound districts, are located over 20 ski areas with vertical drops of 250 to 850 feet, with a total of 168 runs from 2,500 to 8,000 feet in length.

In the Muskoka area, between 100 and 130 miles north of Toronto, are seven ski areas with hotels, motels and cabins - some hillside, most nearby - with a total of over 1,600 rooms. There are 32 runs up to 3,500 feet in length with verticals up to 350 feet.

And in Toronto, only a few miles away from where the winter funlands begin, you'll find live theatre, spacious shopping plazas, entertainment, superb dining and a thriving business community.

Ski Thunder Country is again the theme of ski resorts at the lofter slopes at the mountainous Canadian Lakehead in the province's northwest. Of special interest to visitors from Minnesota and Manitoba, these slopes afford superior skiing for everyone from expert to novice.

It all depends on what you want to do in order to experience a memorable Ontario winter vacation. There are campsites for winter camping and cooking out. Swimming in heated outdoor pools, curling, horseback riding in the snow, and much more.

To help decide your preference, whether it's just watching or joining in, write for Ontario Winter Facilities free booklet, available from the Department of Tourism and Information, Province of Ontario, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Canada.

Vanderlaan - Oosting

Maranatha Christian Reformed Church was the setting for the November 6 wedding of Reo's daughter, Lubertha Oosting, daughter of Mrs. F. Oosting and the late Mr. F. Oosting of Stirling and of Walter Isaac Vanderlaan, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Vanderlaan. Rev. E. Gritter was the officiating minister while Wayne McCurdy, organist and Lana LaChapelle, soloist provided music for the occasion.

Assisting in marriage by her brother, Jan Reo Oosting, the bride wore an Elizabethan style gown of satin peau featuring a wedding band collar, full skirted sleeves gathered by wide cuffs and frills at the wrists. A wide frill adorned the hem of the full-length skirt while the whole gown was enhanced by an overall trimming of chintilly lace roses. A chintilly lace-edged cathedral length veil of pure silk illusion was held in place by a Juliet cap trimmed with seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of red sweetheart roses.

The matron of honor Mrs. Harry Vreugdenhil, the bride's sister, wore a full-length empire style gown with a bone colored bodice and brown skirt of fancy jacquard crimplene. She wore a brown corseted floppy hat and carried a continental crescent of gold daisies 'mums and bronze tinted 'mums.

The bridesmaids Rebecca Fell and Ingrid Vanderlaan were dressed identically to the matron of honor except that their skirts were rust colored. They wore floppy hats and carried similar bouquets.

The flower girl Tanya Vanderlaan wore a white dress with a pink sash and carried a basket of pink and white flowers.

lan the bridegroom's niece was dressed almost identically to the matron of honor. She wore small orange velvet bows in her hair and carried a basket of yellow daisies and bronze-red 'mums with a background of fern and ivy.

The best man was Andy de Vries while guests were ushered by Dick Vreugdenhil and Tony Vanderlaan.

The reception was held at Ba-tava Community Centre. Guests were greeted by the bride's mother in a three-piece orange knit suit with black accessories and a corsage of bronze and yellow tinted 'mums.

For the wedding trip to Florida the bride and bridegroom left in identical outfits consisting of purple suede vest printed and white shirt and black slacks. The bride wore a corsage of yellow daisies and orange-red 'mums.

Upon return the couple will live in Peterborough.

Newlyweds are honored

Minto Community hall was comfortably filled Saturday evening when relatives, friends and neighbors gathered to honor Mr. and Mrs. Art Evans (Jane Clements) on their recent marriage.

Ivan Saries filled the duties of chairman and expressed happiness and best wishes to the bride and groom.

Mrs. Harold Holden led in community singing with Mrs. Joe Forestell at the piano. Readings were given by Miss Edna Tanner, Mrs. Frank McGee and Mrs. Harold Holden. Master Stephen Forestell sang, and Miss Mary Lou Sine gave a piano solo.

Grunt Kyte and son, Grant, favored with several musical selections with guitar accompaniment. Mr. and Mrs. Ken Long played several Christmas selections.

Mrs. Lindsay Tanner read the address and Art and Jane were presented with a china cabinet and a set of dresser lamps on behalf of the community for which they very suitably replied.

They invited all to visit them in their new home in Chelmsford. "For they are jolly good fellows" was sung. Lunch was served and a social hour enjoyed.

A FORUM ABOUT MATURE WOMEN

Dressing Your Age
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
I have a horror of looking as though I'm trying to dress "too young." I'm 53 and don't want to look like an old woman because I don't feel like one. I like smart clothes and frankly have a hard time finding them. I'm missing something, but I never see magazine articles or fashions for women over 40. After all, as a rule, we have more money to spend on these than younger women, isn't there some happy medium for us?

Dear M.G.:
You're absolutely right. Most magazines rarely do acknowledge the existence of the woman over 40, let alone 50, so she pretty much has to thread her own way through the fashion maze. If the stores don't carry the styles you like, why not assemble your own outfits by mixing and matching tunics, skirts, jumpers and blouses, etc. to come up with your own winning combinations. If that doesn't work, you can always take up sewing as a practical hobby. Many good-looking patterns are easy to follow these days and fun to do. And finally, remember that real youthfulness is a state of mind, not the clothes on your back. So if you feel young, you'll look young whatever you wear.

*****
Mother-in-Law Blues
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
My husband's mother is a 75-year-old widow, who may well live another 10 or 15 years. (By then, my husband will be a senior citizen himself.) His mother is not senile, but has always been hypersensitive. She does well in every way except that she generally antagonizes her relatives and alienates them by "staying mad" about things. Although my husband was not favorite of hers as a child, she has now zeroed in on him as her favorite. However, there's the possibility that we may have to move some distance away because my husband plans to change his job to get better retirement benefits. This will mean fewer visits to his other because she won't leave her home and we'll be too far away to get there by car. (Flames are just too expensive.) She keeps saying my husband is her only strong family tie, as though she wants him to stay in town. I don't know what she's after, but how can I steer safely through these late years, so my husband can keep his sanity?

Dear E.H.D.:
First, you haven't moved yet. Second, it's quite natural for a mother to want to maintain some contact with her son in her remaining years. Third, there are many ways of communicating, write letters and use the telephone to keep in touch. So, why do you want to steer safely, if it's your husband's sanity you're concerned with. Since it's his mother, why not leave the driving to him?

Warns of snow on roofs

A warning of the dangers of snow accumulations on roofs of arenas and other buildings was issued today to municipal officials throughout the province by Harold Yonevaya, Executive Director of the Safety and Technical Division of the Ontario Department of Labour.

Recalling the tragedy of the Listowel arena roof collapse in 1959, he noted that several other roofs of buildings have collapsed due to heavy loads over the past few years.

In a letter to all municipal clerks in the province, he stressed the necessity for qualified professional engineers to check the roofs of arenas and buildings in their communities to assure they are structurally designed to withstand snow loads and meet safety standards.

He noted that although buildings have withstood the onslaught of winter and heavy snow accumulations in the past years, they should be rechecked to determine if there is any deterioration of their structure.

He said safety engineers also stress the need for proper maintenance and snow clearance to meet safety standards.

Mr. Yonevaya warned that new factors affecting the drifting of snow on roofs of buildings should be taken under consideration. He said that new buildings erected near the roof of an arena could vary the weight load of snow placing greater stress on some sections of the building.

He said variations of climate in Ontario create a variation in snow load conditions. Areas of heavy snowfall were located through a wide band of southern Ontario stretching from Georgian Bay easterly through Ottawa and included a large portion of southern Ontario and the eastern section of Northern Ontario.

Chemist visits Loyalist College

Jack Schweitzer, analytical chemist with Mill Haven Fibres, visited Loyalist College campus last Wednesday, November 24, to talk about fibre manufacture.

Twenty to thirty people in the Chemistry Department heard Mr. Schweitzer describe the synthesis and processing of the polyester. He discussed the various steps which have a part in production and how they were over come. His interesting talk was well supported by an excellent display of samples.

The audience also heard of the organization of Technical and Research sections in a company and the utilization to technical personnel. Chemistry students in the audience were interested to hear Mr. Schweitzer's prediction of an increased demand for community college graduates in their field. He was thanked on behalf of the group by Mike McMurter, 3rd year Technology student.

The Chemistry Department seminar committee plans additional lectures in the coming semester. All sessions are open to the public.

Is Relief In Sight

Confiscatory taxes and excessive government spending in Canada seem finally to be arousing concern, at least in some quarters.

It is gratifying to hear that even among the governing Liberals in Ottawa, there is widespread disenchantment with the present Benson-style, fiscal policies.

One commentator quotes Prime Minister Trudeau himself as warning his charges that the lemon can be squeezed only so hard.

Canadians have, for some years, been driven into the ground by taxes on income, sales, education and municipal and a myriad of other bases. We pay taxes on taxes (e.g. provincial sales tax on federal sales tax) and are taxed several times over on the same item (e.g. sales tax on a car every time it is sold to a new owner).

And now the talk is to provide guaranteed annual incomes to able-bodied persons, without requiring them to lift a finger to earn it. Who will pay for THAT scheme? Of course, you've already guessed - YOU will.

So when someone in power begins to scream about over taxation and excessive government spending, we make it a point to publicly applaud in the hope that the doctrine will penetrate the skulls of those who would consign us all to bankruptcy in the name of social progress.

Canada Works

You can be a moving force in creating jobs for Canadians.

Canada works when Canadians get involved together. So the Federal Government is putting 498 million dollars to work, through a series of specific programs, to help create jobs for Canadians.

CANADA WORKS WITH YOU

You're a major force in making the program work. We're counting on you, either on your own initiative or through your community groups, to come up with ideas for the Local Initiatives Program. For example, you may have a social service project or an idea such as a cultural program, improvements to substandard housing, assistance to the handicapped, or others that create employment and make your community a better place.

The Training-on-the-Job Program will expand opportunities for training for those who are unemployed or have little work experience, and will work through business and industry.

For those with some basic work experience, the Canada Manpower Training Program has been extended to help provide additional learning.

CANADA WORKS WITH BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

A program of tax credits or direct payments to employers encourages them to add trainees to their staffs through the Training-on-the-Job Program.

CANADA WORKS WITH MUNICIPALITIES

The Local Initiatives Program will help municipalities create additional jobs through worthwhile community projects. Provincial governments will work with municipalities to use this program to support and spur community projects.

CANADA WORKS WITH THE PROVINCES

There's a Federal-Provincial Employment Loans Program designed to create jobs

VARMINT

Football fiasco has fan fuming

By LYNN JONES

The recent announcement that the CTV network had again been awarded the contract for all CFL games and playoffs in 1972, shows how much concern the pignis people have for the viewers they wish to entertain.

Free enterprise is a fine thing, and the budgetary restrictions upon the CBC are probably the principal reason the publicly-supported network is always out-bid, at least in recent years, for the contract. What goes unnoticed, it seems, is that the services of CTV, especially in many parts of Ontario who are not adjacent to Toronto or Ottawa or Kitchener, are either unavailable or very feeble.

With CTV service being so spotty, the Canadian Band

Television Commission should stipulate that regional games should be carried by CBC as well as CTV. We fail to get excited about a game from Vancouver, starting at 11 p.m., featuring two western teams, or even an eastern and western team, when usually the same day, or possibly the following one, there is a match in Hamilton, Toronto or even Ottawa, which this part of Ontario is denied. We do get most Montreal games, but we would guess that most fans in this area are more oriented to Toronto or Hamilton.

The other factor that hits the poor fan in this area is that games in Toronto or Hamilton are usually blacked out. Occasionally one happens to get on the airwaves from Peterborough or Kingston, but these are more the exception than the rule.

With today's technological capacity in communications, there should be some method of piping the two Lake Ontario games to either Peterborough or Kingston or both. Surely we are as entitled to this coverage treatment as in London and Kitchener. We also feel that the majority of the games shown in Ontario and the Maritimes should be eastern conference games, and all playoff games should be shown on both networks, if CTV cannot serve the major geographical portion of the network.

CBC programmers seem to have no trouble landing NFL games, playoffs and Super Bowl, which are also carried by American stations most viewers within this area can get anyway. There may be those who prefer the American game, and it certainly is exciting to watch. Ours, however, with the single point, and three downs, seems to be more interesting. The main thing we need in order to enjoy what many call a national sport, is a national outlook on coverage for those of us who cannot, for many reasons, attend games in person.
Jake Gaudaur is doing a good job as commissioner, if he could convince the owners to make their product a little more available, he would be doing an even better one.

Do You Remember?

75 Years Ago

On Saturday last this section was visited by the first snow storm of the season, but there was not enough for sleighing, and it all disappeared during the rain of Monday night. The pond was all frozen over so that there was skating on Monday morning, but the ice has gone also.

The front of the Scott House, Jas. Haslett, prop., has been much improved in appearance
by a coat of white paint.

Mr. Jed, Green was also duck shooting at Coneseon last week, and claims to have had greater success than any of the party.

T. G. Clute is shipping Pollary now on Tuesdays and Fridays. Would prefer them not drawn and bodies picked clean, wing and tail feathers left on.

As will be seen by the cards in advertising columns, the cheese factories are winding up their business for the season.
Notwithstanding the low prices in the early part of the season, the good prices for cheese this fall ought to bring a fair average to the farmer.

25 Years Ago

Stirling and district friends of Geo. Pollard, local cheese instructor, will join in congratulating him on the winning of the ville this week in connection with the Central Ontario Cheese-makers' Convention. The shield goes to the dairy instructor in Central Ontario whose group won the greatest amount of prize money in the regular classes at the exhibition. Mr. Pollard also won the trophy last year.

Principal J. L. Good of the Stirling High School attended the Ontario Secondary Schools Head-masters' Association Regional Conference held in the College of Education, Toronto, on Saturday last. He was accompanied to the city by Mrs. Good and two daughters and all were guests of friends for the weekend.

Inspector A. W. McGuire, of Tweed, made an official inspection of Stirling Public School on Wednesday and Thursday of last week.

With close to five hundred interested spectators on hand
the annual Commencement Exercises of the Stirling High School took place in the Stirling Theatre last night. The audience was in an appreciative mood and the different numbers on the program were well received. The large attendance bore testimony to the ever-increasing interest of the entire community in this outstanding event of the school year. The fine spirit of cooperation so evident between the parents and teachers speaks a fine future for the local High School.

Hastings County Council is holding its last session of the current year at Shire Hall, Belleville, this week. Those in attendance from this district are Reeve Wm. C. West, Stirling;
W. J. Morrison, Reeve, and W.
Spencer, Deputy-Reeve of Raw-

A Weekly Meditation

by Rev. James F. McGarvey, St. James The Minor Church, Stirling, Ont.

Jesus clearly showed that He had a high regard for the Commandments of the Old Law. Yet He just as clearly did not feel that He was the last word in articulating man's relationships and duties to God and other men. Not only did Jesus criticize the scribes and Pharisees for perverting the original meaning of the Old Law (chapter of freedom and protector of fundamental rights), but He went even further yet.

The Old Law apparently still lacked an essential ingredient, something without which it remained unfulfilled. That something was the example and power of Jesus Christ, for He Himself said, "I have come to fulfill the Law."

He filled the Law by both demonstrating in his serving death, and promulgating in his New Covenant, what He called "My commandment", to love one another, no longer simply "as yourself", but "as I have loved you" (John 15: 12). The same St. John in his letter calls this a "new commandment", because loving one now has a new power, a new light is already shining. (1 John 2:9).

Jesus not only went beyond Pharisaic legalism and back to the original meaning of the early written Law, but He went even beyond the written Law itself. He appealed to something deeper than any written Law - the Law of Moses commanded the Sabbath observance, but the Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath; the Old Law wrote, "Love your neighbor, and hate your enemy, but I (Jesus) say, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you" (Matthew 5).

But most of all, Jesus provided a new context, a new impulse, for the Commandments, and in doing so He transformed them radically. His "as I have loved you" now force us to go beyond the mere wording of the Commandments, beyond simply using them to recognize and avoid wrong, beyond thinking to find in them the whole story of our duties to God and to men.

St. John wrote: "We can be sure we are in God only when the one who claims to be living the same kind of life as Christ lived" (1 John 2:5). John was thus reinforcing the impression that Jesus had come to break open the meaning of the Commandments, and that Jesus treated them not so much as the protection of the fundamental rights of one people, the Israelites, but more as actively promoting the good and service of all men, and to the total and unpredictable degree that Jesus himself served.

In theory and intention the Commandments (and the entire Old Law) were beautiful and noble, enshrining as they did the first Covenant God made with his people, but in practice they wrongly led men to conclude that they contained the "whole" truth about man and God. If taken as the whole truth, or if allowed to over-shadow all else, then they suggest that man's relationship with God is essentially one of rewarding and punishment, making it easy to forget that God freely chooses men before they have done anything at all to deserve it, and that God remains always compassionate and forgiving.

WEEKLY REPORT FROM FOXBORO DISTRICT

(BY JACK WOOD)

CHOOSE FEEDERS TO MATCH FEED SUPPLY

It is important to buy the kind of cattle that will make the best possible use of the kind of feed you have available. By this I mean that some kinds of cattle will make better use of large amounts of roughage than others, while some will make more profitable gains from heavy grain feeding than others.

One question that faces feeders whenever the feed lot is empty

Frankford-Stirling Trimettes meet

The regular meeting of the Stirling-Frankford Trimettes was held on Monday, Nov. 22 in the Library of the Junior School, Stirling.

High loser was Jo-Anne Crow with a loss of 4 lbs.

Winning team was the Skinny Menus with 10 pounds. Exercises were enjoyed.

It was decided to hold a contest with a cash prize to the member who lost the most weight between Christmas and New Year's.

It was also decided to have a Christmas gift exchange at the Christmas party.

Stirling Teen League Bowling

On Friday, Nov. 26 the Gutters (19) won 3 out of 5 points against the Strikers (12). The Hi Lo's (30) took all 5 points from the Chargers (24).

Susan Wright bowled games of 193, 239 for girls' high single, high double 432, and high average 223.

Lyn Merrill received high single of 266; high double of 380; and Paul Jones has the high average of 190.

Other good games were Debbie Montgomery 193, 160; Sharilyn Farrell 138, 141; Paul Jones 169, 176; Fred Smith 226; Trevor Crossman 134, 150; John Bissell 137, 141; Tyler Crossman 136; Faith Little 174; and Robbie Corbett 165.

Is whether to buy calves or heavy short-keep cattle.

(Generally speaking, there isn't much difference between steers and heifers, just don't mix the two.)

A rule, feeder prices are based more on current prices for finished cattle than they are on the market prospects for the time when those feeders will be ready for market. This fact influences the choice of cattle we buy. Recently prices for stockers have been pressured upwards because of demand for feeder cattle.

On a declining market, calves are the better buy. With light weight calves we have less money invested in cattle and more in feed. We have a longer feeding period, and can get the more efficient gains expected from younger animals giving us a better prospect of profit.

On a rising market, we can usually make the best profit feeding short-keepers. We can move them in and out faster, take the weight gain, plus whatever markup we can get on the original inventory, cash them in on the market and start over. The only thing is, you have to guess correctly whether the market is going to go up or down.

Some experts will list more than a dozen different systems of beef feeding, depending on the age and weight of feeders bought and the type of nations used. Basically, there are four of five main alternatives. You can buy calves, or else yearlings or heavier cattle. Then with either calves or yearlings you may put them right onto fairly heavy feed, or you can run them through the winter with moderate gains and finish with heavy feeding later.

There is little difference between hay or grass silage on one hand and corn silage on the other for growing out cattle, but corn silage is much the cheaper feed for finishing. Thus if you have substantial amounts of hay to put through the feeders, don't buy them too heavy.

it. When tomorrow comes today will be gone forever, I hope I will not regret the price I paid for it.

The hymn, 'Saviour, like a shepherd lead us,' was followed by prayer, Mrs. M. Wickens read the scripture taken from Isaiah 11 - verses 1 - 10 and Matthew 25 verses 1 - 13. Mrs. Thompson read the meditation on the theme 'Advent'. The worship service closed with the hymn, 'Jesus Saviour pilot me.'

There are two groups of people: those who are willing to work and those who are willing to let them. She asked, 'Are we willing workers?' Mrs. Ketchen also said, 'we have to work to enjoy leisure and we need leisure to enjoy our work.'

CENTENNIAL REPORT

A report by Thom Reynolds from Centennial Secondary School, Palmer Road, Belleville

The Canadian Centennial Choir of Ottawa, which is the only choir that travels with its own anvil, was in Belleville on Friday for a performance before a select audience-senior elementary and secondary students from Hastings and Lennox and Addington county vocal music classes at Centennial Secondary School.

The choir uses the anvil to accompany the music of the Anvil Chorus from Verdi's Il Trovatore.

Its appearance climaxed a vocal music enrichment day that began with a workshop taught by Dr. Nicholas Goldschmidt, director of music at the University of Guelph and director of the choir. Students attending the workshop at Centennial Secondary School were selected, two from each school, from the vocal music classes.

Students at Centennial Secondary School have given the Christmas Sharing Program of Belleville a big boost this week. They have taken on the task of providing Christmas baskets for 45 families in Belleville.

Sharing their Christmas with others has become a tradition at Centennial. Two years ago the students packed and delivered 32 Christmas baskets.

A collection will be taken up in each home room to pay for the turkeys. The Students' Council will pick up the tab for any classroom that doesn't raise the full sum necessary. The other contents of the baskets will come in the form of donations from students, with drives planned during the next three weeks for canned goods and other food and toys for the baskets.

Senior students, who have access to family cars, will deliver the baskets.

Twenty-eight years in the 'Meat Business', most of them as a Meat Manager. Sort of comforting to know that when you want that 'extra special' roast for Sunday dinner, you can simply walk up to the meat counter and tell Leon about it. Chances are, he'll know exactly what you want, even if you don't. Why are we so confident about our Meat Department? Because we carry only the top grade of Beef (Canada Choice Red Brand); and because every piece of meat is cut right, priced right and guaranteed to taste right. Leon wouldn't have it any other way!

Bowling round on Sunday

A total of 61 teams will participate in three Ontario finals of the third annual Colonel Sanders Bowling Championships, Sunday, December 12.

Due to the number of participants, bowling like most other sports splits its Provincial Championships. Those reaching the finals have advanced through league, house and zone competition.

Winners will advance to the National Championships to be held at O'Connor Hotel, Toronto, January 10, 11, and 12. Each of the teams will bowl seven games, one against each of the other Provinces.

Planning Problems

As matters now stand, it is quite understandable that Stirling village council wants out of the Quinte planning area and into the Hastings area.

Stirling, along with some other area municipalities, at present is forced to contribute toward the cost of both the Quinte and Hastings planning boards. This makes the tax burden for planning purposes far in excess of what Stirling ratepayers can afford.

We wonder, however, whether council might not be better advised to seek an exemption from the double planning levy, rather than opt out of the Quinte area altogether.

Whether we like it or not, planning pressures on the municipality are sure to come from the south, as the growth areas of Belleville, Trenton and Sidney push this way.

Our feeling is that Stirling's planning problems are going to be linked much more closely to those of the rapidly expanding municipalities to the south than, for interest, Madoc's/Marmora's or even Rawdon's.

It is difficult for villages like ours to attract new industry. That, however, does not mean there will be no growth.

Many people who work in the industrial centres prefer to reside in rural or semi-rural surroundings, and few people object to a 15-mile drive to work.

While it may be many years before Stirling would need to hook into an area water or sewage system, if indeed, ever, we feel any plan for the village's future development should be in line with the overall plan for the Quinte district.

Otherwise, our status as a progressive, vital community, could be in jeopardy.

We appreciate the desire of our local council to keep planning costs as low as possible. Our concern, however, is that we not overlook the long term ramifications, in the rush to effect immediate savings.

Train excursion revives memories

BY LYNN JONES
The front page picture last week, combined with the fact that this is December, makes it a month of memories for this writer. It was just 30 years ago this month that I not only had my first train ride, but the reason for this 200-mile journey was to spend Christmas together as a family, which would not have been possible without the trip.

Guard at Gravenhurst, helping ride herd on several hundred prisoners of war, and would not get leave at Christmas. War was a reality 30 years ago, and many Canadian families were about to celebrate their third Christmas with one or more members either far from home, or perhaps already a victim of the two-year old war. Our American friends, just 30 years ago yesterday, found out the brutal duplicity that could be perpetrated, as the waves of Zeros and bombers swept in on an unsuspecting and starkly unprotected fleet anchored at Pearl Harbour.

ing. Trains moved the war effort across the country, and kept the forces supplied. Tractor trailers had not yet come upon the scene in any numbers, and gasoline rationing kept car travel to essential and approved minimums. While it may sound funny to some to reflect on this aspect of our life, let's remember that trains built Canada and in a real sense kept it together in the early days. Without going into detail, it is well known that political intrigues which would make even today's situations look good by comparison, were involved in building cross-country railways.

I think I was fortunate to grow up in the years when the train was first of all a vital link in the economy and war effort, and then see the phasing out of the steam locomotives in favor of diesel power, and finally see virtually all but freight traffic vanish in the onslaught of car and plane travel growth. Travel by train is still an adventure, but two days or less to Vancouver compared with five hours in a plane does not really attract today's traveller.

Coupled with the growth of auto traffic, was the abolition of another popular and important way of life there the lake steamers. When we first moved north in 1942, to live in the community we had visited six months earlier, there were five boats plying the Muskoka Lakes and tributary rivers. Passengers came by train from Toronto to visit friends and travel to their island cottage domains; mail and freight was delivered to a myriad of summer residents and resorts through this method. Our last ride on one of these boats was nearly 15 years ago, and by then, the traffic was down to half as far as boats were concerned, and less than that for passengers. Now it is all gone. Call it nostalgia, or whatever you will, but we miss these things now when we visit Muskoka. We mention this area, because it is the spot we know best. The same tale, with local variations, could be told a thousand times over across this province alone.

Modern technology has made life more comfortable, provided more ways to enjoy life, and earn our living much easier and for more return than ever before. Maybe we should pause once in a while and remember things like trains and boats and other things that have passed or appear to be passing from the scene. They were as important to their day as are some of our conveniences today.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

Misses Eleanor Bush, Mary Chambers, Iris Holland and Mr. Don Runnals, students at Peterborough Normal School, are practicing teaching at the Stirling Public School this week.

Max Preston recently disposed of his farm on the fourth Concession of Rawdon, to Albert Jones.

Several members of Keystone Chapter, No. 72, R.A.M., attended a meeting of Quinte Friendship Chapter, of Belleville, on Monday night and assisted in conducting the Royal Arch Degree. Those who attended from here were Messrs. Geo. D. Watson, Thos. W. Solmes, Cecil Baker, J. L. Good and F. Armstrong, assisting in the degree, and Messrs. Burton Morton and Gordon Bailey.

Arthur Jones, Crookston, was elected Reeve of Huntingdon Township in Monday's election with a majority of 22 over Elmer Post, who has occupied the position for the past three years. Members of council were elected by acclamation.

75 Years Ago

It is expected the induction of the Rev. S. S. Burns as pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Stirling and Huntingdon will take place early in January.

The freezing weather of Tuesday and Wednesday has frozen the surface of the millpond so that the young people are enjoying the best skating they have had for three years.

While skating on the pond on Tuesday afternoon Al. Chedoke got on a weak spot and broke through. He was in the water about five minutes, and was rescued with difficulty. Two or three others also broke through in shallow water and got a wetting.

The annual Musical and Literary Reunion given under the auspices of Stirling Lodge No. 239, I.O.O.F., on Wednesday evening, the 25th ult., was an excellent one notwithstanding the very unfavorable weather. Owing to the rain and icy state of the roads the attendance was not as large as it would have been, there being but very few in from the country. The programme provided was an excellent one, and readings were rendered by Miss White and Miss Denyes; recitation by Mr. Frapp; solos by Misses Currie and Conley, and Mr. Men and women behind bars are able to share in the blessings of Christmas through The Salvation Army, whose blue uniforms penetrate prison walls. Those who are parents are enabled to send personal gifts to their children and experienced Salvation Army officers help them prepare for the day when they will return to their families.

Congratulations are extended to Ralph W. Vandervoort, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vandervoort, of Stirling, who successfully passed all his fourth year exams in the Faculty of Dentistry, University of Toronto. He began his fifth and final year Monday, Dec. 2nd, under the wartime accelerated course.

Stirling Branch No. 228 holds its first "Open House" in newly decorated and furnished Clubrooms Tuesday, December 17th, at 8 p.m. The members and their ladies will be hosts to the Reeve and Mrs. West, the Mayor of Campbellford and Mrs. Aythart, the Worshipful Master of Stirling Lodge, No. 69, A.F. & A.M., No. 69, and Mrs. Good and the President of Frankford Legion and Mrs. Rogers.

Veterans of the Village and District - whether members of the Legion or not - are cordially invited to attend and to bring their ladies. Comrade George Noble and his Entertainment and Refreshment Committee have their plans well laid and a most enjoyable evening is anticipated.

C. E. Parker, quartettes by Miss Currie, Mrs. Blackley, and Messrs. Martin and Brown; a history of Oddfellowship (reading) by Mr. Scott; an excellent address on Oddfellowship by Mr. A. H. Blackley; and good addresses by Revs. S. Crookshanks and Thompson and J. S. Carstairs, B.A., Principal of the High School. Refreshments were served about the middle of the programme. Mr. W. S. White, N.G., presided. Taken altogether the entertainment was a most successful one.

Last Friday evening a pleasant surprise was given to Mr. Coultis, of Ivanhoe. The old gentleman was in rather poor circumstances, and the young men of Ivanhoe, headed by Messrs. Bragg & Kehoe, gathered up about $5 worth of provisions and clothing and presented it to him. He was taken very much by surprise, and thanked the boys for their kindness.

River Valley WI

The Christmas meeting of River Valley Women's Institute was held Thursday, December 2 at the home of Mrs. Jack Donohoe. The rooms were decorated with Christmas symbols and a lighted tree.

Twenty-one members, two visitors and four pre-school children were in attendance. Mrs. George Grills opened with the Institute Ode, Mary Stewart collected and a welcome to all. Mrs. Gerald Brooks read the minutes and correspondence and distributed the fall issue of the Home and Country magazine. Mrs. J. L. Donohoe gave the financial statement for the Institute and Mrs. Vernon Harry for the Centre.

Mrs. Ernest Carr gave a few historical items and showed some clippings of the News-Argus printing press that was scrapped and former days at the Bell telephone.

the Somerset Federation.

Mrs. Roy Tucker brought a message from the Conference Review of 1971, Norway, 1971, where the 13th Triennial Conference was held.

Pictures of the A.C.W.W. Newsletter competition in three parts were shown. This was in three classes, plain needlework, craft work and lace making.

Mrs. Vernon-Harry spoke briefly re the senior training course in 'Sewing with Knits' which she and Mrs. Gerald Brooks conducted four evenings in November at the Centre. Approximately 20 ladies attended. Mrs. Ernest Carr outlined her report of the Trent valley area held in October at Club Canara in Belleville and displayed Ethel Chapman's book.

A committee was appointed to arrange parcels for the shut-ins in the community.

The pennies for November amounted to $1.65. At this meeting the pennies were gathered by Gloria Harry and the collection by Colleen Carlisle.

The Summary Day for the sewing class will be held on January 8, the tailoring course, April 10 and the Food Forum, April 25.

The 75th anniversary of the Institutes of Ontario will be observed in Stirling Community Hall on February 14, 1972 under the guidance of Hastings West District.

The hostess and Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh were in charge of the program. They read messages on the theme and conducted two quiz contests with prizes for the winners.

Several carols were sung and Mrs. Percy MacMullen read a Christmas poem written by the late Helen B. Anderson of Wellington in 1933.

The roll call centred around Christmas shopping and the meeting closed with the Institute grace. Some of the members brought Christmas cookies and fruit cake and these were added to the refreshments provided by the members of the Citizenship and Education group.

At the close of the social hour Mrs. Philip Conley voiced appreciative thanks to all those who had taken part that afternoon.

the road, if taken over by the province, should be extended from Curr's Corners, about eight miles west of Campbellford, to Highway 45, a move which would save several miles of driving for those who now must travel to Hastings Village to connect with Highway 45 to Cobourg and Highway 401.

Mr. Denk said also he believed a wise move would be for the province to establish a highway connecting Highway 115 with Highway 45, which would allow a direct route from Highway 401 to Stirling, and east. The move, he said, would benefit all of the communities along the way, particularly Hastings, Warkworth, Campbellford and Stirling. Such a move would also make it more feasible to establish a direct bus service with Toronto.

Ray Shortt, Reeve of Rawdon Township, said the first he heard of such a move came when he received an invitation from Mayor Tanner to attend the meeting.

STUDY MADE
United Counties engineer Robert Edmunds said a needs study was made in 1969 with the counties and the department of highways, and at that time the idea of having the road taken over was turned down by the province.

Peter Anderson, Hastings County engineer said a "lines of desire" survey regarding motorists travelling between Peterborough and Belleville was made some years ago, but that to his knowledge the report had not been published. He suggested contacting the department of transportation and communications urging them to make the results of the survey public. Hastings County M.L.A. Clarke Rollins said he attended a meeting regarding county roads in the Kingston area being taken over by the province, but Hastings County, which he represents was opposed to the takeover.

He said he would go along with Hastings as their provincial representative, and added that he believed a takeover of the county road would not be advantageous to either county because they would lose control of the route. The counties have, he said, the equipment to maintain the road and he believes it would be to their advantage to keep it that way. He said more than 100 miles of township roads have been taken over by the counties during the past few years. This move, he said, gave municipalities better control over their own highway systems.

Reeve Carl Heath, Hastings Village, said he would be in favour of seeing the road extended to Highway 45 and that the province should give the matter serious consideration. Jack Bush, Reeve of Sidney Township, said he believes municipalities within the counties should work together to improve the road system for the good of all concerned.

Although Mayor Tanner asked that a committee be formed to study the proposal and make a recommendation, those present felt discussions by the individual councils involved would be requested before a decision could be made on forming such a committee.

FOR LOTS OF MILK AT LOW COST...

let us mix your milking ration!

Wherever grain is grown and cows are milked, thousands of farmers depend on Purina Check-R-Mix rations to keep their cost of production low. We believe you'll find you can't beat a ration made with your own grain and Purina Cow Chow Concentrate.

Try us and see. Watch production. See how it goes up—because our rations are mixed for results—according to directions from the Purina Research Farm.

Try our service, too. Bring in your grain, and we'll quickly grind and mix it. If you're busy, we'll pick up your grain and deliver the Check-R-Mixed ration. Or we'll work with you on a grain exchange program.

Call us or bring in your grain. Prove to yourself... Purina Check-R-Mix feeding can cost you less.

The 4-H Club leaders and members attended Achievement Day at Moira Secondary School, Belleville, on Saturday, December 4.

Mrs. Oscar Merrick, Mrs. Percy MacMullen, Mrs. Milford Wrightman, Mrs. Allan Howes, Mrs. Irvin Potts and Mrs. Kenneth Weaver spent Saturday, December 4 at Toronto and Sherway Gardens.

The Stirling Horticultural Society arranged a chartered bus and forty people enjoyed the trip. Sixteen people chose to spend the day in Toronto and they left the bus at The Royal York Hotel.

The balance of the group spent the day at Sherway Gardens, one of the newest centres in the area. Down every store lined lane there is a quiet garden, an oasis of beauty where you may pause and rest at the centre in the tree shaded Sherway square. There is a Japanese garden with dwarfed trees and trickling water. The tropical garden and the elegant hanging garden were very lovely. The desert garden, filled with various species of cacti, was very attractive. The Christmas decorations were exceptional with a revolving evergreen tree laden with parcels, Santa Claus had a special room where he met the children and a merry go round provided endless rides.

The flower place was filled with cut flowers, roses, carnations, etc., potted 'mums and poinsettias. Also a large array of artificial Christmas flowers. There were over 100 specialty shops.

The group left Stirling in Franklin's travel coach of Mrs. MacMullen, at 8:00 in the morning and returned to Stirling about 9:45 p.m. The arrangements were made by Mrs. Carman Nix who is the Horticultural Bus Secretary.

Gordon Whitehouse performed the ceremony. Mrs. Helene Finch of London was bridesmaid and Fred Spencer was groomsmen. The reception was held at the Rylstone Inn in Campbellford.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Finch of London were weekend guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roslin Finch and family and at-son said he also has had the same problem.

There is no legislation to prevent the machines from travelling on the streets, and proving they are trespassing on private property is a difficult matter. The reeve said about the only law that would really do anything would be to have the machines from the village, and he would hate to see that happen.

The reeve said he had attended a recent meeting of the local snowmobile club, and these members appear to know the rules of safety and have common sense. "But like anything else, there are those who disregard these rules, and they are the few who cause the trouble," he said.

Councillors agreed that if snowmobiles would come into town and go straight home, people would not really be bothered by them. They urged residents to be patient until "first-runtis" is passed and then things will move or less return to normal.

Evans - Clements

On Saturday, November 13 at 2:30 p.m. Rev. W. Cox united in marriage, at Bethel United Church, Margaret Jane Clements, R.R. 1, Stirling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Clements and Arthur Wayne Evans, 26 Cornhill Pkwy., Toronto, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Evans.

The wedding music was provided by Mrs. Ronald Johnson Foxboro who also accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Wilbert Cox. The guest pews in the church were decorated with white bows with ribbons and these were cut when the guests entered their seats. Mauve 'mums and white gladiolus decorated the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father and mother, wore a dress and coat ensemble of white velvet. The sleeveless dress fell from the empire waistline to form an A-line skirt. The coat was joined together at the neckline and flowed into a slight train. Attached to the coat was a hood that formed the head-dress. The hood and coat were trimmed with white maribou. She carried a bouquet of white 'mums.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Ralph Clements, R. R. 1, Stirling, wore a floor length Victorian style dress of royal purple velvet. The dress had an empire waistline with a mauve chignon yoke. The high stand-up collar, velvet sleeves and yoke were trimmed with matching mauve lace. The bridesmaids, Miss Elizabeth MacKinnon and Miss Rose Muto, Lively, Ont., were dressed similar to the matron of honor but with mauve chignon skirts falling from the empire waistline. They each carried bouquets of Fuchsia and white 'mums. The best man was Brian Evans from Toronto and the ushers were Ralph Clements, brother of the bride and Mark Bonetie.

The reception and dinner was held at the 100F hall in Stirling and at 8:00 p.m. the wedding party attended a dance at the Masonic Temple, Toronto.

The bride's mother greeted guests wearing a rose crepe princess style gown and the groom's mother wore a light green crepe A-line dress with full chignon sleeves. Both ladies wore corsages of white 'mums and pink rosebuds.

For a wedding trip to the Sudbury area the bride wore a beige cape and skirt ensemble, blue blouse and Nina Ricci scarf with brown accessories and a bronze 'mum corsage.

The out of town guests were from Lively, Detroit, Toronto and Renfrew.

Several showers were given for the bride and groom. These included a dinner reception and miscellaneous gifts at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Langley,

Christmas pageant presented at St. John's

On Sunday, the children of St. John's Sunday School presented their Christmas Pageant, accompanied by Mrs. T. J. (Rosemary) Davidson at the organ.

As the Sunday School choir sang "Trip to Bethlehem", Mary (Kim Parsonson) and Joseph (David Kellar) entered the church and made their way to the manger. The first verse of "Bring a Torch, Jeanette, Isabella" was sung by Peggy Morgan, who bequeathed Jeanette (Margie Barnard) and Isabella (Kathy Reid) to the stable to see the Baby Jesus.

After Margie and Kathy had sung, the townspeople (choir) and a band of angels (remainder of the Sunday School) entered. The Christmas Story continued from here with Christine McGee and Carl Weatherell doing the narrative alternately.

"Bethlehem Baby", "Carol of the Shepherds Children", "Carol of the Shepherds", a recitation by Roseanne McGee, "Away in a Manger" - children aged 3 to 6 years with Dale Clarke as soloist, "Baby Jesus" - children 7 and 8 years old, "God Rest Ye Merry Gentlemen", "Christmas is Remembering" - choir, "Rocking Carol" - Lynn Murray, accompanied by the choir, "Angels We Have Heard on High" - entire Sunday School, "Christmas Song" - choir, "I Saw Three Ships" - Roger McGee and Danny Clarke accompanied by the choir, "Good Christian Men Rejoice", choir, followed.

Immediately following the Pageant, the Sunday School choir was served lunch in the church hall. At one o'clock, they presented the music from the pageant at Wingfield School, the children at Wingfield taking part in some of the songs. Each member of the choir presented a card that he or she had made to a child at Wingfield. A gingerbread house made by Mrs. Michael (Sandra) Lambert was also presented to the children at Wingfield.

Upon their return to the church hall, the children were given a treat before returning home.

Members of the Sunday School Choir are as follows: Margie Barnard, Danny Clarke, Holly Cooke, Selene Davidson, Robbie Edgars, Sandra Edgars, David Kellar, Lynn Kellar, Christine McGee, Eleanor McGee, Roger McGee, Peter Melton, Denise Morgan, Peggy Morgan, Lynn Murray, Kim Parsonson, Colleen Sine, Andrew Staples, Kathy Reid, Patti Tanner, Jeffrey Wilcox, Margaret Wilcox, Carl Weatherell, and Laird Weatherell.

Minor hockey meeting held

(by THOM REYNOLDS)

The Stirling Minor Hockey Association began plans on the weekend to institute a new system of arriving at who should sit on the executive of the organization, and to draw up a constitution.

The association will have an annual meeting each August and every second year will elect new persons to fill the positions on the executive of the organization.

The association will consist of a president, past president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, a member from Stirling village, Rawdon, Sidney, Thurlow, and Huntingdon Townships as selected by the council, and the coaches and manager of the Girls, Novice, Pee-Wee, Bantam, Midget, and Juvenile Hockey Teams.

The group will hold eight regular meetings extending from August to April. The elected members will have a two year term of office.

The constitution, presented by Cecil Solmes, sets down the aims and objectives of the Stirling Hockey Association.

Mr. Solmes said that there was a need for the constitution so that people coming to the area can see the aims and objectives of the association and so that the people of Stirling can also see the workings of the association.

It had earlier been suggested that there be representatives from Stirling, two from Rawdon and Sidney Townships and one from Thurlow and Huntingdon Townships. This was changed so that the committee would have five executive members and five municipal members.

It was noted that the representatives from the municipalities would not have to be councillors or recreation board members but persons interested in hockey.

Three local residents were cash winners in the draw last week sponsored by the Stirling Hockey Club in connection with the annual turkey bingo.

Mrs. Anne Faulkner, won $25; Mrs. Dorothy Hawker, $15 and Sandra Stapley, R.R. 3, Frankford, $10.

The draws were made during the bingo held at the theatre, which was packed for the event. Four dozen 22 pound turkeys were given away as bingo prizes.

Club president, Elwood Bateman, expressed his appreciation to the residents for their support of the venture. The funds raised will be used primarily to provide Christmas enjoyment for families which otherwise would not receive the full happiness of the season.

These family tickets would be purchased, allowing parents and any number of their children to attend games at any time except during the playoff games. The children would have to pay the normal price if they were not with their parents.

A family ticket of $10 for the balance of the season games was suggested by the group present. A study on this will be done by the committee studying other facets of the Minor Hockey Association operation.

THANKING THE GUEST SPEAKER

Donald Williams, member of the St. Paul's United Church AOTS club, presents Roy Bonisteel, host of CBC's Man Alive program, with locally produced cheese. Mr. Bonisteel, who has been host of the program for five years, was guest speaker at the annual AOTS Father and Son Christmas banquet held last Wednesday evening.

CBC broadcaster speaks to local AOTS

"Serve to give service to your neighbor" was the message given to members of the St. Paul's United Church AOTS club last Wednesday night by Roy Bonisteel, host of the CBC's Man Alive program. Mr. Bonisteel was introduced at the annual AOTS father and son Christmas banquet by Jack Bush, member of the club.

In speaking about church attendance, Mr. Bonisteel said that membership has gone down consistently in the last 10 years. He felt the changes in the church were too slow and not big enough. He noted the number of clerics who are leaving the church and how the churches are becoming museums.

He said the church has hit some pretty rough times and that it is the men's clubs, such as the AOTS that are suffering. "We are facing breakdown in the community, and a communication breakdown in the church," he stressed.

Mr. Bonisteel spoke of his filming excursion to Belfast where he spoke with a Catholic and a Protestant family separately for five days and later how he brought them together. They found they had problems and concerns in common.

Mr. Bonisteel said there was a need for joint action in any community. He said that fellowship plays a large part in an AOTS group.

But he stressed that "if fellow-ship was the only reason for coming together, your club will fail." He said that a club in a church, such as the AOTS, needs to serve the community. "Serve to give service to your neighbor," he said.

In order that the club may serve the community, it needs to be aware, to care, and have the courage to stand up and express its concern.

"I have little hope for a church living in the past, trying to relive the 1950's over again," he said.

Mr. Bonisteel said an individual can't help that much more, it is a time for group effort. Mr. Bonisteel knew many of the members of the club as he had attended Stirling High School for two years. After high school Mr. Bonisteel worked as an announcer at CJSQ radio and then went on to radio work in St. Catharines. Under three bosses, the United Church, the Anglican Church, and the Roman Catholic Church, he worked with radio and TV religious programming in Vancouver.

Even though Man Alive has received high ratings and has been placed in the Monday night prime time spot, "Canadians do not watch public affairs shows" he said. The church and the society need to face up to the problems they see and hear about from the media, Mr. Bonisteel said. He said that people feel helpless in seeing bad news, but that there is no separation between bad and good news.

Donald Williams, member of the Stirling AOTS, thanked Mr. Bonisteel for coming and gave him a gift from the area, locally produced cheese.

Vandalism.. a plague

Among the vivid manifestations of the sickness of today's society, petty theft surely must rank near the top.

When this involves the results of citizens' efforts to make the community a better place in which to live, the crime takes on even wider dimensions.

The theft and/or destruction of Christmas light bulbs is a matter which has plagued towns and cities for many years. This year, the "game" has spread to Stirling, as well as some other small communities in the Quinte area.

The writer of a letter published elsewhere on this page has every reason to ask, "What's the use in trying to beautify the village?" It is no small thing for a resident, particularly a senior citizen, to go to the trouble and expense of decorating his property for the holiday season. To have his efforts nullified by some nitwit thief is inexcusable.

Another local resident advised the News-Argus last week that he has strung lights on a tree outside his home every December for the past 25 years, with this year being the first that thieves have attacked his bulbs. The culprit should be ashamed.

Unfortunately, there is a segment of the younger generation who feel that the world is their oyster and that anything they want to do is all right, provided they can do it without getting caught. And let us not lay all the blame at the feet of the youth; in many cases, parents who have long since exempted themselves from any moral code have set the example for ignorant or misguided children to follow.

We can only hope that sanity will eventually prevail in these matters, or that the law will become harsh enough to forcibly persuade would-be vandals and thieves to change their ways.

VARMINT

The real quality of life

By ELDON KEMP

Her death notice appeared in an out of town paper toward the end of last week. To the ordinary reader, there was nothing outstanding in the announcement, except that she was in her 94th year -- an age most of us do not expect to reach.

Rose Adams lived with her husband in the little village of Warkworth when I knew her best, in the mid-1950s. As a teenager who had jumped at any chance to earn a little extra spending money, I had the daily job of carrying in coal and stove oil for Mr. and Mrs. Adams from the basement of their comfortable, frame home, during the winter months.

Rose Adams was never one to seek the limelight. In fact, I do not ever recall seeing her name mentioned in the well-read columns of the Warkworth Journal.

Yet, there was something about the simple life she lived that was attractive -- that left a distinct impact on me, for one.

So far as I know, she had a perpetual cheerfulness. I cannot ever recall an unkind word spoken or even an unpleasant expression.

A woman who, for several years, waited on a husband in ill health, Mrs. Adams displayed an uncommon buoyancy of spirit not often found, in my experience.

I was her chore boy, but she treated me more like a member of the family. She always wanted to know how my folks were doing, how was Grandma Kemp (who she knew as a girl) and how were things going with me.

Then she would give me the latest news about her family, particularly her grandchildren of whom she was so proud.

I was always welcome in that home, a situation which my brother and I may have exploited, particularly on Saturday nights at a time when watching the National Hockey League game was an absolute must. What a privilege it was for us to see the game, instead of just listening to the radio at home.

Of course, there was more to these evenings than that. Mrs. Adams was not a hockey fan herself, although her husband was, and I can well remember listening to her as she scurried about in the kitchen, whipping up a last lunch to satisfy the ravenous appetite of two growing boys.

How we laughed when she asked us one night why the players were going "hither and skither" in their race for the puck! She never did get to understand hockey, as far as I know, but she certainly appreciated that we liked to watch it. When we would leave for home after a telecast, the invitation always was repeated for us to come back next Saturday night.

Several years have passed since those "good days" of my boyhood, but some things I shall never forget. One of these is the example Rose Adams demonstrated to me -- that life has a dimension far removed from the rat race of accumulating material things. The pity is that so few of us realize the importance of the values she held so dear.

A Weekly Meditation

by D. C. TYLER

Grace Chapel

"Christ is the answer."

Recently I've been reading the 62nd Psalm. One of the shorter psalms, only twelve verses. These verses are very relevant and meaningful, for all who know and love the Lord Jesus Christ today.

Men and women need something, or rather some one, in whom they may place their confidence, not only for this little span of life, of which we are told in James 4:14, "Has even a vapour that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away," but for eternity hereafter.

Some tell us that God is dead and the Bible is not the inspired word of the living God. In Revelation 1:18 we read, "I am that liveth and was dead, and behold I am alive for evermore, and have the keys of hell and death."

Also in II Timothy 3:16 All

Do You Remember?

75 Years Ago

Reeve Halliwell is attending County Council at Belleville.

Rev. R. W. Marsh, formerly Methodist minister on this circuit, died in Belleville yesterday. He was just 50 years of age.

Mr. G. L. Scott is fitting up the shop in the west end of the Conley block for his telegraph and telephone office, and will remove there in a few days.

Marmora has again a newspaper, the first issue of the Marmora Herald having appeared last week. It is published by Mr. Z. Lafontaine, who recently started a second paper in Tweed, but has now removed to Marmora, where he has the field to himself. From the appearance of the first issue, we have no doubt he will succeed.

25 Years Ago

Vernon Matthews, Ridge Road, has sold the timber limits on his farm to the Wells Bros., of Marmora. The business deal was completed on Saturday and workmen began cutting on Monday morning. It is expected that it will take all winter to complete the cut.

Alex Tanner, Sidney Township, was named president of the Sidney Township Progressive Conservative Association at their annual meeting held at Wallbridge recently. Vice-Presidents are Harry Morrow and Harley Hamilton while Frank Woods is the secretary.

Mrs. W. E. Tunmon, Foxboro, was named president of the Ladies' Association and Mrs. Kenneth Kingston was appointed secretary.

The installation of the officers of Stirling L.O.L. No. 110 was held in the lodgroom on Thursday night, December 12th, with W. J. Johnston, County Master officiating.

Refreshments were served and brief addresses were given by the newly installed officers.

Ray Hermiston, young son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Hermiston, got a cold dip Monday night when he broke through the ice while skating on Rawdon Creek. Claire Ackers, a fellow skater, assisted him out of the water.

Following negotiations for some time, a business deal of interest was completed this week when Walter T. Elliott purchased the Stirling Motor Sales property from E. G. Bailey, who has conducted a garage business here for many years. The new owner will take possession early in the new year.

Letter to the editor

Why beautify your town?

Stirling Minor Hockey

Everett Dostator, coach of the juvenile hockey team, said that there would be still too much work for one man, the vice-president.

Bob Whittam, coach of the Bantam team, who proposed the system, said that the vice-president would not look after booking the games and team operations solely but would be a guide for the coaches and managers. He would be someone over who could be looked to for assistance with their problems.

It was decided that a committee of five would study the system presented for forming the most association and would study the proposed constitution. The committee would then present their objections and further proposals to the present association and interested persons at their next meeting on Tuesday, January 11.

The committee members are Ted Dobson, Cecil Solmes, Everett Dostator, Bernard Farrell, Gary Mason, and Bert Bastedo, president.

It was also decided that Gary Mason would take on the job of assigning referees to the different games. Gary is the chief referee for the hockey association.

The association and other interested persons present at the meeting on Sunday afternoon also discussed public skating. It was decided that the problem of a public address system in the arena would be turned over to the Arena Committee, in charge of arena affairs. It was mentioned that the music on Sunday afternoon would decrease the number of accidents occurring and cut down the amount of tag games and general foolishness occurring on the ice.

It was also noted by Mr. Whittam that the direction of skating on Sunday was always the same way and that he wanted to see the direction changed sometime during the afternoon. He said that most of his players can carry the puck skating only the one way. This matter was referred to the arena committee.

UCO officers

Bruce McCutcheon was re-elected president of United Co-Operatives of Ontario at the organization's 24th annual meeting in Toronto last week. Mr. McCutcheon is a 50 year old beef and dairy farmer from Proton Station, near Dundalk.

In the elections for the four director posts that became available at the annual meeting, which attracted a record 373 voting delegates from across the province, all of the incumbent directors were returned.

They were Mr. McKercher, from the western counties; Ron Martin, of Echo Bay, on Ontario's north; Mr. Langman, for the central counties; and Charles Huffman, of Harrow, who was re-elected as one of the three at-large directors on the 12-man board.

Opening the two-day annual meeting, which started with a coffee party at the Royal York, was President McCutcheon. He indicated that the increasing size of UCO, plus its determination to continue to serve "the young farmer who is trying to carve out a niche for himself and his family," has resulted in an objective to change the organization's control structure -- as early as next year.

Barn lost to flames

CHATTERTON - Fire completely destroyed a barn situated on a 100 acre farm on the 7th of Sidney near Highway 14, Thursday morning.

The barn, owned by Ernest Jones of 43 Smith Crescent, Belleville, burst into flames shortly before 10 a.m. The fire quickly reduced the structure to ashes.

"It was gone when we got there," said Sidney Township Fire Department captain Jack Rushell. Three trucks and eight volunteer firemen arrived on the scene at 10:05.

"All that was left were some beams," he said.

It was learned that only five, eight-week-old piglets had been lost in the blaze, which Mr. Jones estimates at $10,000 for the barn and $1,000 for contents of hay, straw, and grain.

Stirling W.I. holds meeting

The Stirling Women's Institute meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Clifford Clancy on Wednesday afternoon. There were 20 members and six visitors present.

Mrs. Everett Cooke, president, welcomed those attending and then conducted the opening ceremonies which included the singing of the WI Ode and the repeating of the Mary Stewart Collect.

A memorial service was held for a member who died suddenly, Mrs. Arthur Stevenson. She made an outstanding contribution to the institute over the years. The president read the following verse during the service:
We travel down a winding road,
A road without an end,
And she who seems so far away
Is only around the bend,
Soft breezes, skies are more blue,
And some time in her happiness
She will meet with us anew,
So let not our hearts be troubled,
It's true that in the end
Happiness will follow sorrow
When we meet her around the bend.

One minute of silence was held in respect for Mrs. Stevenson. The business part of the meeting opened with the reading of the minutes by Mrs. Clancy and thank you notes. A Christmas card was received from Mrs. L. Rodgers, Trenton and Mrs. Maurice Heath of Belleville, sent a letter with a donation which was gratefully received by the institute.

Mrs. Tanner gave the bank balance and told of the receipts from a recent card party. She also gave a report of the bills that had been paid.

Mrs. Aythart turned over a substantial sum of money she had collected from the sale of quilts since the last meeting. The usual practice of remembering the older members at Christmas has been continued as it has been done in previous years.

Mrs. Debbie Seeley, leader of the Stirling girls' Homemaking Club, explained the club's project, "Bedroom Accessories." She gave an outline of the various articles made during the course which included lamp shades, dresser scarves and bed spreads. She announced that the new program for the club will be "Sportswear in Knits", enclosing she told the institute that the girls have things in readiness for the forthcoming Achievement Day, which will be held at Moira Secondary School, Belleville, for all of West Hastings' clubs.

Mrs. Lindsay McKeown conducted the Christmas program and all joined in singing carols with Mrs. H. David as pianist.

Mrs. Floyd Bartlett gave the Christmas message based on the golden rule, with the true meaning of Christmas for all people in all lands.

Mrs. John Ryan told the story of choosing the Christmas tree.

Mrs. McKeown conducted a contest on Christmas carols and songs with Mrs. Tanner and Mrs. Cooke as the winners. Mrs. L. Bronson gave a humorous contest with Ruth Wanner and Debbie Seeley getting the prize. Mrs. Clancy and Mrs. Tanner carried out Santa's duties by distributing Christmas gifts which included gifts for the visitors. The meeting closed with carols and the institute prayer. A lunch of Christmas food, including Christmas cake, was served and Mrs. W. C. West voiced appreciation for the social afternoon.

Councillor wants clean-up

The Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority will be asked to consider the possibility of assisting with a clean-up of the Stirling pond.

At last Wednesday's meeting of Stirling village council, Councillor Edward Klompmaier said he wanted council's reaction to the suggestion that the authority be approached. Mr. Klompmaier is Stirling's representative on the authority.

He suggested that the pond could be deepened, fish planted and a roadside park, with picnic tables, established.

"It would really beautify the village," he said.

Reeve Robert Anderson explained that the pond has been kept at a low level during the winter months to prevent flooding in the spring.

Councillor Fred Brandt noted that the village has been paying its share toward the authority and should not be hesitant in asking for some return.

"Why not bring it up at your next meeting?" asked Councillor Douglas Bensley.

This was agreed to by members of council.

Road salt warning is issued by OWRC

The Ontario Water Resources Commission has issued a warning to municipalities concerning the pollution effects of de-icing substances commonly used on streets during winter.

A letter from the OWRC was read by Clerk W. L. Pollock at Wednesday night's meeting of Stirling village council.

The commission said municipal authorities should be aware that road salt can significantly affect the chloride level of adjacent waterways.

Accumulated snow scraped from roadways also is a source of pollution, the letter said.

The cooperation of the village was sought in the effort to combat this sort of pollution.

"They might better write that letter to the Department of Transportation and Communications," commented Reeve Robert Anderson. "They are the biggest offenders."

Councillor Edward Klompmaier noted that this problem also is one which concerns the Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority. He suggested that the authority find an alternative site for dumping its snow, away from Rawdon Creek, possibly at the fairgrounds.

"It's going to find its way to the creek eventually, anyhow," replied the reeve.

Councillor Douglas Bensley suggested that eventually, the solution will be to eliminate salt as a road treatment.

SS concert held at West Huntingdon

The St. Andrew's Couples Club of West Huntingdon sponsored a Christmas concert in St. Andrew's Church Sunday school room on Friday evening, Dec. 17. There was a large attendance of guests.

The program was opened with a reading on the Birth of Christ containing inserts of Carols, after which the children took over.

A song, Hard Rock, Coco and Joe was sung by the West Huntingdon Sing a Long Group.

The Night that Love Came Down read by Gail LaRue.

Christmas Chopticks sung by Carole Bissett and Susie Cooper.

Christmas of Long Ago read by Fran Cooper, Brenda Ray, Tom Hassall, Lorraine Bissett and Art Luenman.

Two Fat for the Chimney sung by Tom Hassall and Art Luenman.

The First Christmas read by Glen Thompson.

Fire number unfamiliar, survey shows

Most Stirling people don't know where to get help if their home is on fire, according to a survey taken this month by the Fire Department and Boy Scouts.

Slightly over 300 homes were surveyed and the results showed that if they knew what number to call in the event of a fire or other emergency that might require firemen's assistance.

Fire department officials point out that to get the fire department, you must dial 911 for the operator and ask for the fire.

The survey was arranged by the fire department, with the actual house visits being made by the Boy Scouts.

About Christmas

In the annual rush that accompanies the pre-Christmas season, the true meaning of Christmas often becomes obscured.

From a strictly religious observance, the season has become, for many, little more than a secular ritual of whirlwind buying and selling.

On Friday night, harried shoppers and store workers will head home to recover from the pressures and demands of the past 20 days.

"Santa" will do his thing, the presents will be opened Saturday morning and the fowl carved for dinner.

By nighttime, the children's toys will have taken a beating, with batteries run down and wind-up springs broken in many cases. And the adults will have had ample opportunity to consider whether they spent as much on the gift for Aunt Hilda as she did for them.

In January, the bills will start coming in.

Have we become cynical? Perhaps so. Is this the ideal way to celebrate the birth of the Savior? We wonder.

The gifts brought by the Wise Men to the Christ Child were symbolic of the Great Gift that God gave man on that first Christmas. We, therefore, have no objection to the practice of gift-giving, provided it is done in the right spirit.

How this fits in with organized gift exchanges, with dollar limits established, and participation on the basis of obligation, is a matter to be questioned.

Christians around the world are united each year on Dec. 25 as they mark that great event which occurred in the little town of Bethlehem nearly 2,000 years ago. Few, if any, of us would want to see the annual celebration abolished.

What many would like to see, however, is a re-emphasis on the religious aspects of the season, without which Christmas has no real meaning.

May Christmas, 1971, find a return to the worship of the Babe of Bethlehem for you and yours.

Is a four-day work week desirable?

By LYNN JONES

At a recent labor seminar in Belleville, much discussion took place on the subject of the introduction of a four-day work week in the near future. How soon this will happen depends primarily upon location. Already, there are plants in both Canada and the United States using it on an experimental basis, and so far, it seems to be working well.

The shortened work week is supposed to meet two problems head-on at the same time. First, it creates more jobs and thus cuts down unemployment. Secondly, it gives people more leisure time and thus relief from the alleged tensions which are blamed for most of the ills in today's society.

It is all well and good for the powerful unions to seek and in all likelihood gain this four-day week, as they seem to win nearly every other demand they make. I do not say this move is a bad one, but there seems to be one aspect of the newly created job situation that the unions are either accidentally or deliberately neglecting — moonlighting.

I presume that in all instances where the four-day week becomes standard practice, the members will expect the same pay for 32 hours as they previously received for 40. What disturbs this writer is, What will these freed workers do with their three-day weekend? Will they sit quietly somewhere and fish or pursue some other recreational endeavor? Or will they do so many of the present labor force does, go and seek a second job and thus not help the unemployment case at all?

In the Quinte area, we have most segments of the economy represented. Just stop and think how many people you know who have a second job, or how many families you know where the man has an excellent job, the children are beyond needing full daytime care, and the mother is working as well.

Undoubtedly, there are situations where both parents need to work and perhaps there are cases where it is necessary to hire a baby-sitter to do so. There are also other cases where the man is earning a substantial salary and the wife also is employed.

Ten days from now, new legislation governing unemployment insurance payments and deductions goes into effect. What this will mean is that almost every person earning money will pay into the fund, whether or not they have a hope of ever collecting. Certain other aspects are changing slightly, compared to what we have been accustomed to paying and receiving.

These new laws may or may not help the worker who cannot get work and will undoubtedly enrich the government coffers, as does nearly everything the lawmakers pass these days. If there is any genuine concern for the wage earner, let the regulations for job seekers be rigidly enforced. If there is work, let him take it or not receive benefits. If a man has a good job, he should be prevented from taking another as well, and thus leave the second opening for the poor soul who needs work.

The dignity of supporting his family in the style to which they have become accustomed is the right of every man. Let's have the support of union, government and public to see that this right is not abused in the future as it has been in the past.

Christmas message from Salvation Army

In his special Christmas message, Commissioner C.D. Wiseman, leader of the Salvation Army in Canada, suggests that probably the vision of the Army most people have at Christmas is of carollers singing and playing in the streets, and Christmas kettles into which money is thrown to help the poor.

There is deep and grateful appreciation for the way generous Canadians support the Army the year 'round, but the Commissioner hopes the Army's presence will represent more than kettles and carols.

"We want people to again listen to the original Christmas carol," the Commissioner states in his message. "More than ever before the world needs to hear and heed the angel chorus, 'Glory to God in the highest, and on earth, peace, goodwill toward men.' Until God is recognized as 'the Highest' there can't be true peace in the world. We worship at the altars of hedonism, sex, alcohol, material possessions. For multitudes these things force God out to the margins of living. In fact, many barely give Him a thought from one year's end to another.

"The tragedy is that when God and His rules that are designed to produce the only really satisfactory and joyful life-style, are ignored, life commences to go to pieces. An architect who ignores simple facts about people, and just because he wants to, builds his ceilings so low that no one could stand upright, would be reckoned a fool. People who ignore the way they are made with their inbuilt need for something more than the things one can feel, touch, smell and handle, are equally foolish.

"God's peace, which gives life poise and meaning, is available in Jesus Christ. He is alive in the world today, ready to love and forgive and help people. This is what Salvationists who are members of Christ's church, stand for. It is the only story they have to tell!"

Commissioner Wiseman challenges Canadian Salvationists particularly to meet people wherever they congregate, with this message of forgiveness and inner peace.

GREETINGS

At this Christmas season, I would like to wish you the people in Sidney Township and all the Quinte area the Happiest and Merriest Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

1971 has proven to be a very busy year both in our township achievements and our Quinte Area with many accomplishments in the field of planning and area services that will be of benefit to all in the future.

As a member of the Hastings County Council we have worked to achieve a sound and economical level of government.

I would like to pay tribute to my fellow councillors and the staff of this township who have proven themselves to be dedicated people serving you in a democratic way.

As chairman of the Quinte Planning Area, I extend greetings to the board members and a special thanks to all the staff for being so considerate during our trials and tribulations as we try to accomplish some of the goals set before us as an Area Planning Board. During the few months we have been together we have hurdled some of the big obstacles and I feel sure we will be able to accomplish more things for the future in '72.

Christmas is a holiday but never let us forget the sacred events which took place many years ago.

May your door be opened wide
To all the joys of Christmas tide
May the friendly words of the seasons cheer
Remain to brighten your coming year.

Dollars and Good Sense

(By William J. Martin)
Tired of the cramped suburban life? Want an inexpensive vacation place? How about a tax shelter?

If the answer to any of these questions is yes, you may soon be joining the millions who now own vacation homes.

You can find second homes that cost anywhere from a few thousand dollars to much more and as prices increase, values of convenient vacation homes are soaring. As the land salesman say, the land supply is limited and the population continues to grow.

If you're in the market, here are a few things to consider before picking your home away from home.

Choose a structure and location that all the family can enjoy. It should be fairly easy to keep up and large enough to accommodate each member of the family to keep them around.

The lot should also be pretty easy to maintain. Don't plant grass or shrubbery, leave the natural ground cover intact.

For tax purposes, your vacation home should be rentable during part or most of the year. Pick a spot that's easy for others to get to.

As a potential attraction to either renters or future purchasers your second home should be close to public land, accessible by decent year-round public roads, reasonably close to civilization and near some type of recreation, such as a lake or mountain.

Be especially careful about buying raw land with no structures on it to be sure it is suitable for building. Make sure you get a clear title to the property and check for easements, rights of way or any encumbrances on the land.

With proper planning, you can buy a vacation home which will provide the entire family with enjoyable stays, recreation and relaxation, yet provide some rental income and steadily increase in value and be easy to sell.

Stirling area cheesemaker named winner

Gary Reid of R.R. 2, Stirling, won the mature class with a score of 98 points at the British Empire Dairy show held recently in Belleville in conjunction with the annual convention of the Central Ontario Cheese Makers.

The Hastings county block class was won by Ted Foley of Foxboro Cheese Factory with a similar score.

Douglas Rowe of Warkworth won the square block class with a score of 98.25 and also had the same score for his cheese in the British Empire class.

A cheese maker from the province of Quebec has won this year's triple crown of the cheese-making industry.

Lionel Lamoureux of Granby, Quebec, earlier this year won the top prize for cheese at the Canadian National Exhibition and last month took top honors at the Royal Winter Fair.

At Belleville, the Quebec maker won the grand championship. This year's cheese show attracted a total of 145 entries and included the highest number of Quebec makers in several years.

Share your blessings

Christmas can be a joyous time of year.

It can cause happy wonder to shine in the eyes of a little boy or girl. It can bring great joy into a child's life. It can awaken faith.

But unfortunately for some children, Christmas this year may be a disappointment. It may be looking in store windows at toys their parents can't afford to buy -- or suffering for lack of adequate clothing -- or simply experiencing a feeling of utter loneliness.

This need not be; for The Salvation Army, on your behalf reaches out to such children and makes possible for them the thrill of opening gifts, the treat of enjoying a special holiday dinner, the warm feeling of wearing new clothes.

Yes, The Salvation Army knows many, many troubled people, both young and old. It tries to make Christmas happy and meaningful by providing friendship and material assistance for the less fortunate in communities -- all across Canada -- fathers who will spend this Christmas behind prison bars -- for mothers whose children lie ill and cold in a substandard dwelling -- for pain-ridden hospitalized veterans -- for many needy youngsters who know little of comfort and joy.

The Salvation Army has been spreading joy and happiness at Christmastime -- and through-out the year -- for more than a century, and it plans to keep on doing it.

Share YOUR blessings this Christmas.

Welcome

Have yourself a Merry, Merry Christmas. Thank you for your continued patronage and good will.

Eye care goes mobile

A mobile eye care van, the second of its kind in Canada, will soon make its rounds throughout Ontario.

The van is designed to conduct eye examinations and to test for eye diseases," says Medical Director of the project, Dr. W. S. Hunter. "It will be just like an ophthalmologist's office, except on wheels," he continues.

As well, there will be equipment for performing minor eye surgery on an emergency basis.

Financed by a $75,000 grant from the Physicians Services Incorporated Foundation, the mobile unit is considered to be a modern approach to the prevention of blindness.

"The van will visit communities usually on a weekly basis," says Dr. Hunter. "In each area, we would like the staff of the van, a medical eye doctor and a nurse, trained in eye care, to work with local general practitioners, public health units, and Lions Clubs to co-ordinate the eye care program."

Dr. Hunter explains that application was made to PSI, a granting agency, which is incorporated by the physicians of Ontario to utilize the reserves remaining after PSI retired from the health insurance field. Their $75,000 grant covers the purchase of the van and its equipment, operating costs, and the provision of salaries for the van staff, for one year.

"We are pleased," says Dr. D. W. Keenleyside, PSI President, "to be able to provide The Canadian National Institute for the Blind, with funds for its service program which will benefit the citizens of Ontario."

Since May, the first mobile eye care unit has been in service in Newfoundland. During this time, 4,000 people have had eye examinations. In the first week of operation, the van travelled 100 miles inland from St. John's and 600 people were examined by Dr. E. Shenken, Medical Co-ordinator for that van. He found three cases of glaucoma, a disturbance of the optic nerve associated with increased pressure inside the eyeball, if neglected this disease can lead to blindness. This first van was financed by the Lions Club of Weston, Ontario and equipped by the CNIB.

A special committee of the Ontario Medical Association will assist in the planning of Ontario's mobile eye care program and will decide on the size of the new van and the equipment that will be needed.

All in a Day's Work

Dotting the day-to-day work records of Ontario Hydro's eleven helicopter pilots are unusual incidents — from being shot at by hunters to helping combat forest fires. Choppers have assisted in search-and-rescue operations for downed military and civilian planes, and on occasion have rescued injured or lost hunters. Motorists stranded with burning cars have profited from fire extinguishers carried as standard safety equipment.

Hydro, with the first helicopter fleet in the Toronto area, played a major role in the aftermath of hurricane Hazel. Helping police direct traffic from the air was only one involvement. Toronto's airborne traffic watch is an offshoot.

The thirteen-helicopter fleet saves Hydro over a million dollars a year on line patrol alone. Whirlybirds work on transmission line construction, surveying, ice flow studies, transport of equipment — and new uses are constantly being found.

Flight over the province isn't indiscriminate. Hydro pilots have turkey farms marked on their maps. The birds will stampede at the sound of a helicopter and in the crush damage or death can result. Mink ranches are avoided in spring when upset mothers will kill their young.

Penitentiaries and missile installations are on restricted lists but nudist camps are left to the pilots' discretion.

A FORUM ABOUT MATURE WOMEN

Locating the Problem

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

By the time a woman reaches maturity, if something bugs her, I think she should be advised to shut her mouth, grab a piece of paper and a pen and begin thinking and writing. Sometimes writing it all out helps you pin down the trouble. (This doesn't apply of course to problems such as sickness or blindness, which are beyond our control). But in most other cases, I say: Locate the problem and know it well. Don't cover your eyes or walk away, but fight it with everything you've got.

A.G., Covina, Calif.

Always Arguing

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

My husband and I argue constantly — and have for 20 years — yet we really like each other. Our friends think we don't get along, but we get along just fine. How can you explain something like this to other people?

N.B., Denver, Colo.

Dear N.B.:

Don't ventry. Good marriages are based on positive feelings that a man and a woman have for each other, not on the impression they make to the outside world. Many couples may put up a fine front, but are actually quite unhappy. If you feel good about your marriage, that's what really counts.

Nothing to Fear

Dear Margaret Brookfield:

My mother, who's 48 years old, is going through various menopausal symptoms and doesn't want to admit to it. She won't even see her gynecologist. How can I make her realize there's nothing to fear by understanding what's taking place? I think that not knowing or admitting the existence of the menopause can only lead to a still greater fear.

P.G., Ontario, Can.

Dear P.G.:

You sound more mature than your mother, but that isn't solving her problems. Perhaps you could get a friend in her own age group, who's weathered the situ-

Rebekahs hold meeting

A short meeting was held in the L.O.O.F. Temple, Tuesday, Dec. 15 when the Noble Grand Sister Madeline Walker of Laurel Rebekah Lodge #211 welcomed over 40 members. Sister Marjorie Slapley, Vice Grand, reported a few members ill and she had remembered them in the usual way; she also had made several hospital visits. The Noble Grand gave a Holding Committee report and advised the Lodge that Sister Verna Woodbeck, PNG, would continue with the responsibility of renting the Temple for 1972. Christmas cards are to be sent to several Stirling Businesses to thank them for the many favors received through the past year. After a short meeting, Sister Ruby Tompkins was in charge of the Christmas Program. A big surprise happened when Santa Claus entered the Hall accompanied by little Lyle Walker, son of the Noble Grand, carrying a pretty basket filled with "wee" gifts and handed one to each member. Sister Ruby led in a Carol Sing-Song; Sister Nellie McIntosh PNG accompanied with the music. Sister Bessie Patterson gave a Christmas reading and Sister Muriel Sharpe rendered a piano solo. An impressive ceremony "Friendship's Wheel" with Sister Verna Woodbeck PNG as the cog in the center of the wheel, held pink and green streamers as the spokes. Sisters Lillian Johnson PNG, Betty Johnson, Eileen Woodcock PNG, Doreen Ackers, Dorothy McCaughan, and Irene Hogle PNG formed the rim, each one carrying a flashlight which shone on the streamer she was carrying. Sister Olive Whitehead PNG was in charge of the lights and Sister Mildred Morrow PNG accompanied on the piano. Sisters Verna Woodbeck PNG, Ruby Tompkins, Muriel Sharpe, Dorothy McCaughan, Mildred Morrow PNG, Marion Heath PNG accompanied by Sister Nellie McIntosh PNG, at the piano. The members retired to the banquet hall where Sister Olive Whitehead PDDP and her committee had delicious refreshments ready on a Christmas decorated table. A hearty vote of thanks was expressed by Brother Ray Sine - Sister Olive responded.

Animal Fats in Human Diets

We still hear comments from time to time about animal fats in human diets leading to heart disease. Perhaps it's time for us to remind readers, (on behalf of our farmer members), of the results of the Framingham Study in Boston, as reported in Heart's Dairyman a few months ago.

This study was started by the United States Public Health Service in 1946, to determine the factors associated with the development of atherosclerotic and hypertensive cardiovascular disease. That's a handle of no mean proportions when stated in medical terms, but simply means heart disease.

Framingham is a suburb of Boston with a population of 28,000 in 1948 and 52,000 at the time the report was made slightly over a year ago. The diets of these people and the incidence of heart disease were

Snowmobile congress held

The Fourth International Snowmobile Congress will be held in Quebec City, Quebec, on January 18, 19 and 20, 1972 at the Laurende Hotel. Representatives of Federal and regional governments from the United States, Canada and Europe will be in attendance as well as key industry personnel, members of the academic community and snowmobile users.

The theme of the Fourth Annual Congress is Respect, Responsibility and Recreation -- the Three R's of snowmobiling. Subject matter to be covered will include discussions on the environment, snowmobile safety, user preferences, the economics of the sport of snowmobiling and medical reports. Factual reports dealing with the relationship of the snowmobile to the environment, an inside look at snowmobile safety, an explanation of snowmobile noise and financial opportunity within the snowmobile industry will highlight the meetings.

The three-day meeting will begin on Tuesday morning, January 18, with an address by a key representative of the Government of Quebec. That afternoon, Congress participants will be provided with the opportunity to enjoy snowmobiling on a specially designed trail network in beautiful Laurende Park, one of the most progressive use areas in the Province.

The Congress is held under the auspices of the International Snowmobile Congress Inc., a newly formed corporation interested in the development of snowmobiling. Similar meetings have been held with great success in Albany, New York; Duluth, Minnesota and Portland, Maine.

The blue-winged teal, a warm weather duck, heads for the deep south well ahead of freeze-up, usually in early September. They travel far from Canada's prairies, to Mexico, Central America, the West Indies and across the equator to Chile and northern Brazil. Principal nesting grounds are in Canada where Ducks Unlimited projects play a vital role.

BRUCE RICHARDSON

A Dec. 13 funeral service was held at the Weaver Funeral Home in Trenton for Bruce Richardson, R.R. 3, Frankford, who died Dec. 11 in Belleville General Hospital. He was in his 81st year.

Entombment was in the Stirling Mount Evergreen Cemetery Vault with Howard, Lloyd and Roy Cooney, Otis and Hadley Richardson and Jim Teerstra acting as bearers.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. M. Caswell of St. George's Anglican Church, Born in Sidney township, the deceased was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Richardson. He was retired CNR employee and had lived at his last address for the past 60 years.

He is survived by his wife the former Anita Tice and five sons, Haig of Carrying Place, Gerald and Douglas, R.R. 3, Frankford, Percy of Trenton and Jack of Peterborough. A daughter Gwendolyn predeceased him.

Also surviving are two sisters, Mrs. David (Helen) Lamb, Stirling and Mrs. Ramsay (Bessie) Cooney, R.R. 3, Frankford and a brother, Ross Richardson of Belleville.

Stirling men paint church

FRANKFORD - Trinity Anglican Church here will be 100 years old in 1976 and the count down has already started.

Rector Charles Staples and his congregation intend to have the premises shining like new well ahead of time as they pitch in and help with the big job of cleaning and redecorating the church's interior. Church women with their group president, Mrs. Carman Mikel, providing leadership take turns giving a hand to the volunteers.

The last time painters gave the inside of the historic place of worship a new look was in 1947. Then the decor was refurbished so it remained the same as the original (1907) decor in appearance.

The project called for a specialist in church decorating and, naturally, Maurice Bell of Stirling was hired. It was like a reunion with an old acquaintance, because the place was one of the first of 158 churches he's been selected to redecorate in 24 years in the business. His team on this job includes brothers Don and Howard Myers, painters, also of Stirling.

River Valley UCW

The River Valley unit of St. Paul's United Church Women met at the house for its December meeting. In spite of bad driving conditions there was a good attendance of its members to enjoy the Christmas program. The opening thought was entitled A Pilgrimage. From the reports of the convenors it was noted that many visits had been made to the sick and shut-ins, and five Christmas booklets had been given to the latter.

The unit members were pleased to learn that Mrs. Jean Bogart had agreed to be the incoming leader.

Mrs. Roy Bush, in her stewardship talk, spoke on the Spirit of Christmas. We try to reveal this spirit in many ways, but the secret of Christmas joys lies in our own hearts.

The unit made arrangements for help in preparing a program, and for the serving of a lunch at the Christmas party for the residents of the Edward St. Manor to be held Tues. Dec. 21.

The worship service and program was conducted by Doris Wells and Jean Bogart. As the group recited in unison the Christmas story as recorded in the gospel according to St. Luke, a series of slides were shown to illustrate the verses.

Christmas music was used for the rest of the program. Carols were sung, interspersed with the listening to records by the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, by Mahalia Jackson, and by Eddie Dunstetter. Commentaries were read by Doris Wells on the origin and other notes of interest of the music.

Lunch and a social time followed. Thanks was expressed by Joan Bush to the hostess, Mrs. May, and to all who contributed to the meeting. Evelyn Duffin expressed thanks and appreciation to Joan for being our leader for the past two years.

CENTENNIAL REPORT

A report by Thom Reynolds from Centennial Secondary School, Palmer Road, Belleville.

On Thursday night, Dec. 16 the Centennial Junior and Senior Bands presented a musical winter wonderland.

The concert was of seasonal and contemporary music with performances by a girl's trio and a flute trio. Included in the show was a musical presentation of Holiday on Ice and Winter Wonderland.

In addition to the junior and senior bands there was a performance by the Centennial jug band.

Castings is in full swing for the coming musical production of L'il Abner. The popular comic strip characters' musical will be presented during February at the school.

Report cards were handed out to students of Centennial on Monday afternoon. The cards are handled now through the Department of Education Computer Centre in Toronto.

Collections of food stuffs have been going on all this week at Centennial for the Christmas Hampers which will be taken to the families in Belleville sometime today or Thursday morning.

Mrs. John Lambert of Stirling retired today from her duties as head librarian of the school. Mrs. Lambert has been at Centennial since 1968.

Trenton gets new industry

A new industry establishing in Trenton will employ forty-six people at the beginning of operations and this figure is expected to double after five years. Baring Industries (Ontario) Limited will manufacture cigarette tubes and hand operated cigarette-making machines.

The company will receive an Ontario Development Corporation performance loan of $302,500 and a term loan of $137,500 to help construct and equip a $3/4 million plant, according to an announcement by the Honorable Allan Grossman, Minister of Trade and Development.

Products manufactured by the company will replace Canadian imports valued at about $1 million annually.

Christmas Greetings

May your Christmas glisten, and gleam and glow with seasonal joy. Thanks for letting us serve you. We anticipate your continued confidence.

CHRISTMAS 1971

BURRELL JEWELLERS

Things you should know about...

YOUR NEW COMBINED GOVERNMENT PLAN

The new "Ontario Health Insurance Plan" will provide all the coverage now available to you under both OHSIP and Ontario Hospital Insurance. And it will do so at a lower combined premium than you now pay for the two separate plans.

The new premiums will be payable in January, 1972, and thereafter, to cover benefit periods beginning on or after April 1, 1972. These new premiums will be:

- $11.00 a month for a single person, and
- $22.00 a month for a family (2 or more eligible persons)

REPLACES "OHSIP" AND "ONTARIO HOSPITAL INSURANCE"

The Ontario Health Insurance Plan will replace the OHSIP (medical) and Ontario Hospital Insurance plans as of next April 1, and you will then have only:

- one plan to deal with;
- one health insurance identification card;
- one health insurance number (your former Ontario Hospital Insurance number);
- one combined premium to pay.

If you now have Ontario Hospital Insurance, your changeover to the new combined plan will be automatic. No action on your part is required as the new plan will be based on the existing hospital insurance billing system.

FREE FOR SENIOR CITIZENS

(After 1-year Residence in Ontario)

As of January 1, 1972 residents aged 65 and over are exempt from paying Ontario Health Insurance premiums to cover themselves and their eligible dependents. To benefit from this exemption, insurance may be transferred to the name of the older spouse if it is presently in the name of a spouse under age 65.

Most residents aged 65 years and over have already applied for premium-free coverage, but if you have not done so, please write to the Plan giving your Ontario Health Insurance number, your OHSIP number, and month and year of birth.

Persons who turn 65 after January 31, 1972, should apply at the time for free coverage. If you pay your premium on a direct basis, write to the Plan for an application. If you pay through a group, advise your group. Premium-free coverage will take effect on the first day of the month in which your 65th birthday occurs. Any premiums paid to cover benefit periods beyond that date will be refunded.

NEW IDENTIFICATION CARDS

The Plan will provide each insured single person and each insured head of a family with a new Ontario Health Insurance Identification Card to use for insured services received on or after April 1. Anyone who has not received his or her card by that date should use the current Hospital Insurance Certificate, after April 1, 1972, for medical and hospital services until the new card is received.

Your present OHSIP card should be used when claiming for medical and practitioner services received up to March 31, 1972.

IMPORTANT

As the present Ontario Hospital Insurance numbers and billing system will form the basis of the new plan, anyone who does not now have hospital insurance coverage should register without delay.

Applications are available in banks and hospitals and from offices of the Ontario Health Insurance Plan.

BE SURE YOU ARE COVERED NEXT APRIL 1st!

Report cards handed out at Madoc

On December 22 the students at Centre Hastings Secondary School received their report cards. These report cards do not have to be returned to the school. In addition to subject achievement attendance in each class is being reported on the report card. Parents who have any questions are requested to contact the school. In conjunction with student achievement, the school will be hosting two Parent Nights where parents are asked to come to the school to discuss their child's achievement with the teachers. In order to facilitate the organization each student will be given a form for parents to request teacher interviews. These forms were sent home on December 22 and parents were requested to return these to the school by January 6th, 1972. The first Parent Night will be held on Monday, January 17, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. for parents of students with surnames beginning with the letters from "A" to "K". The second Parent Night will be held on Monday, January 24 from 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. for parents of students with surnames beginning with the letters from "L" to "Z". The school is extremely interested in meeting the parents of the students.

An interesting suggestion

We like the suggestion put forward by Councillor Edward Klompaker that an effort be made to beautify the Stirling pond area.

This is a project which should interest the Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority. In addition, it could be an outlet for the energies of various local groups such as the Rotary Club and the Scout movement.

With a concerted effort, the pond could be made into a real scenic spot, attractive to anglers and picnickers in summer and to skaters in winter.

We agree with the village council that the Conservation Authority be requested to take a look at the site, with a view to developing it.

As we come to the end of 1971, may we express Season's Greetings to our family of readers, advertisers and correspondents for their support during the past year. We look forward with optimism to 1972.

T'was the season to be jolly

BY ELDON KEMP
I'd like to report that I survived Christmas.

To be more accurate, I survived Christmas Day, for at our house, the Yuletide season begins about the end of November and extends considerably into January. We make the Twelve Days of Christmas seem like a half-hour tea party.

It began with the erection of our 6-year-old pre-fab Christmas tree. Every year, my wife insists that we must replace this well-worn, silver relic. But when the decorations come out, the old tree emerges with them. It always looks much prettier than we remembered, so up it goes!

Although most people leave their Christmas shopping to the feverish few days before Christmas, the buying of gifts starts much earlier at our place. I think it would be safe to say my wife begins to take things in hand for Christmas about mid-August. There is one notable exception to the pattern, however. Namely, me.

Call me a Seroopee if you like, but I am a personal procrastinator when it comes to doing my shopping. At about 2:30 p.m. on Dec. 24, I suddenly remember that if Christmas is to be a merry affair, I had better start busting. It was no different this year.

Christmas Eve was progressing favorably when what to my wondering eyes should appear, but two dozen balloons for me to blow up. I have a tendency to pass out on the 14th balloon. I selected the two largest ones to inflate first, while I was still in condition to do so. Ten minutes of lung bursting, cheek straining puffing produced two four-foot monsters. I was best.

"Oh, I forgot to tell you, I bought a balloon pump," offered my wife, as she cast her eyes over my limp body.

I was too spent to react. It was just as well. Jail is no place to spend a holiday.

Christmas Day was something else. As some know, the Battle of the Bulge is a continuous campaign with me. Valuable ground was lost over the weekend.

A copious breakfast was followed by a turkey dinner at noon which in turn was followed by (you guessed it) a turkey dinner in the evening. My diet didn't have a chance.

A return to work Monday morning gave a respite from cracking nuts, winding toy springs, assembling train tracks, packing away torn wrapping paper and carving turkey.

As I said, I have survived so far. If I can clear the New Year's hurdle, I think I'll be ready to face 1972.

P.S. - I have two questions, for which I would be grateful for answers.

1. Why is it that used wrapping paper takes up four times as much space as the gifts themselves?

2. Why do Brazil nuts require so much pressure to crack that the edible portion is crushed in the effort?

A Weekly Meditation

By REV. CHARLES STAPLES
St. John's Anglican Church
Out of the troubled dark came
Time narrowed then into an instant...

Time widened out into eternity
Power was upon me so that I could see Light beyond light, torrents of tumbled glory.

When it's time to begin a new year, its time to think about what you are going to reach out to. The new year should be considered new, if we're prepared to make it new. Another year of the same old way of living is not what our recent celebration of Jesus' Birth is about. The joy of Christmas carries us into a rejoicing about all of life.

God has come down to earth to dwell among us, to be with us. How many voices are there, that will say, "time has widened out into eternity?" How many people have a personal belief that feel confident about the future, because God is among us? Or who will be able to say, "power is upon me so I could see light beyond light, torrents of tumbled glory?"

The positive affirmation of the glories of Christ can not be made by a hollow ring from a shaky faith. It requires the ring of truth. People must have a faith that is reliable.

As we move forward into another year in the Seventies, let us move closer in our personal life toward the goal of seeing God's very presence in all that is around us and of serving Him through loving all.

Letter to the editor

Dear Mr. Editor:
As no one has passed on credit to a fine group of children and their young coaches; it is time.

On Sunday, Dec. 12, the Stirling All Star T'was played their first game at the Richard Ellis Memorial Arena, against the Wilsons Concrete.

The latter, much more experience for having played 2 years beat the Stirling team 9-0.

It is only fair to say our Stirling team never quit trying to win even in the last seconds of the game.

I had one of the most enjoyable Sunday afternoons ever and I hope I can enjoy the return match Jan. 8, 1972 at 1 p.m. in the Stirling arena.

Congratulations to the team and the coaches for unlimited effort.

Yours truly,
A truly Satisfied Fan
